PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. Cordova 98-1923,
Peter Petrovsky,
Amook Island, Uyak Bay.

May 1, 1923.

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, Peter Petrovsky, whose post office address is Uyak, Alaska, and who is conducting a fox farm on Amook Island, Uyak Bay, is hereby authorized to engage in commercial fishing for salmon and codfish in Uyak Bay, and the waters adjacent thereto between Cape Kuliuk and Cape Uyak, within Zone 1, of the Kodiak-Afognak District, of said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the permittee may operate one beach seine not to exceed 60 fathoms in length, for the taking of salmon for fox feed and other commercial purposes. Fresh salmon may be sold to any company or purchaser authorized to operate within said zone.
2. That the permittee may salt and pack not to exceed 30 standard barrels of salmon, other than reds and kings; or 30 standard barrels of salmon bellies, other than reds or kings, provided, however, that the backs of such salmon shall not be wasted but shall be saved and utilized for fox or dog feed, or other food purpose.
3. That the permittee may operate two codfish hand lines for the purpose of catching and preparing a small amount of dry cod or stock fish.
4. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation, (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
5. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
